TWO ACCLAIMED LEADING REFERENCE WORKS ON EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH—ON ONE CD-ROM!

Education: The Complete Encyclopedia (CD-ROM) offers you:

- Approximately 1,500 articles
- Access to 16 volumes of information on educational research and practice
- Approximately 33,000 fully verified literature references
- References linked to full ERIC® references and abstracts
- Over 1,000 internationally renowned contributors

Education: The Complete Encyclopedia (CD-ROM) contains the full text, extensively updated, of the acclaimed leading reference works International Encyclopedia of Education (2nd Edition) published in 12 volumes, and the Encyclopedia of Higher Education, published in 4 volumes. This CD-ROM provides educational researchers, teachers and students at universities, institutes of education and colleges with a unique information resource, unrivalled in its depth of coverage of all aspects of educational research.

Important additional features

There are full-text searching capabilities offered in the electronic edition. The CD-ROM features a customized interface, multiple tables of contents arranged both thematically and sequentially, and extensive cross-referencing. An important additional feature is the inclusion of numerous abstracts of references supplied from the ERIC® (Educational Resources Information Center) database, assisting the researcher in the identification of further reading.

Easy access and functionality

Information may be accessed by browsing the tables of contents, searching by author, contributor or topic, or by using the thematic guide which is based on the classified list of entries. All levels of Boolean searching are supported.
